

THE PIOCHE WEEKLY RECORD.

VOL. XLIV.

PIOCHE, NEVADA, THURSDAY, JULY 4, 1895.

NO. 41.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

Washington, June 29, 1895.

Spain is afraid, according to the cable news from Madrid, that the United States seeking a pretext for the forcible seizure of Cuba. That is about the most amusing bit of news that has come to Washington for many a long day. Not that such a proceeding on the part of this government would be unpopular in this country. On the contrary, all the indications are that it would be extremely popular. But the present administration has made a record on the policy of extending the territory of the United States which should give even so weak a country as Spain ample assurance that Cuba will be safe so far as this country is concerned until there is a change of administration.

At least two members of the Cabinet are working to step from their present positions into the Senate, on the fourth of March, 1897, and they are both supported by the whole power of the administration in their ambitions. Secretary Hoke Smith is an avowed candidate for Senator Gordon's seat, that gentleman having announced that he would not stand for re-election, but he has sturdy opposition in the person of ex-Speaker Crisp. Secretary Carlisle is not an avowed candidate for Senator Blackburn's seat, but his friends all admit that he will become such if the democrats carry the Kentucky Legislature this fall.

The silver men are not pleased with recent events in the political world. The prospects of a division in the republican party on silver have changed materially since that Cleveland Convention succeeded in dodging the question, and the result in Kentucky has made them less sanguine of success in the South. But they say the crisis will come when the National Conventions are held next year, and that unless one or the other adopts a platform friendly to silver a stampede from both parties will take place and the silver men will all get together.

According to ex-Representative Forman, of Illinois, now in Washington, Honorable William R. Morrison, who was supposed a few weeks ago to be near enough in accord with President Cleveland's ideas on finance to go to Illinois to try to head off the free silver movement in his party, is now the idol of the free coinage democrats of the state and will be pushed by the for the presidential nomination. It had been supposed that Vice President Stevenson would be the candidate put forth by Illinois—in fact, it has from the first been charged by the administration people that all the silver agitation in Illinois was in the interest of Mr. Stevenson's candidacy—but when Mr. Forman's attention was called to that supposition he said: "Stevenson would have no show in Illinois against Morrison. There is no comparison between the strength of the two men. Morrison has it all." In considering this some allowance must be made for the warm friendship existing between Mr. Forman and Colonel Morrison.

It is in the power of Judge McComas to give Captain Howgate a twenty years sentence, ten on each of the indictments upon which he was found guilty of embezzling United States funds; but it is thought that the jury's recommendation to mercy which followed the verdict, will shorten the sentence. An application for a new trial has been filed and will be argued this week before Judge McComas who will almost certainly refuse it. Howgate's attorneys have already announced their intention to take the case to the Court of Appeals and if they failed to get Judge McComas reversed there, to the U. S. Supreme Court. This is one of the sort of cases that raises doubts in ordinary people's minds of the law being applied common sense, as it is said to be. It is well known to many of the older residents of Washington that Captain Howgate came here, in street venacular, "on his uppers," and that he very soon afterwards became one of the highest livers in town, throwing money around much more freely than the average millionaire does and maintaining openly two establishments, one presided over by his legal wife and the other by his bawdy wife. It is also known that when he was first arrested the evidence of his stealing was so overwhelming that he ran away and remained away, although his whereabouts was known and openly discussed; for more than thirteen years. When he was finally arrested and brought back it was discovered that all of the documentary evidence of his stealing had been spirited away from the department files. Some new indictments were found against him, but in the first trial the prosecution failed to produce evidence good enough to satisfy the jury and he was acquitted. He has now been tried on two more of those newly found indictments and found guilty, but his lawyers are confident of their ultimate success in getting him clear, although they cannot believe him guiltless; their hope lies in proving the evidence against him to be illegal.

An interesting delusion is produced by looking along a red hot poker at some small object (a coin or a letter stuck upon a wall) removed from the eye a distance of from four to six feet. Direct the gaze intently for a few seconds, and you will presently see an inverted image of the object hanging near the end of the poker.—St. Louis Republic.

TO THE PUBLIC!

After a business career of nearly a quarter of a century in Pioche, I have at last concluded to retire from the field, which has become too contracted and dull to support a first-class hardware establishment. In order to close out my remaining stock as fast as possible, I have reduced prices from 10 to 50 per cent below actual cost. I particularly invite the trade, merchants and dealers, who may want to add, or increase their stock with a desirable line of hardware, at figures that will satisfy the closest buyer, anyone in need of Hardware, Tools, Cutlery, Fire-arms, Hardwood and Wagon Material, Kitchen and House Furnishing Goods, etc., will find this a rare opportunity. To those who owe accounts and notes, I will say that if they wish to avoid trouble and costs, they come forward within 30 days and pay up, or make satisfactory arrangement for an extension of time, this is a final notice to all without exception.

SUMMONS.

In The District Court of the Fourth Judicial District, Lincoln County, State of Nevada.

The State of Nevada Sends Greeting to DAVID JONES:

You are hereby required to appear in an action commenced against you as defendant by Jessie Jones as plaintiff, in the Fourth District Court of the State of Nevada, Lincoln County, at the town of Pioche, and answer the complaint therein, which is on file with the Clerk of said Court, within ten days after the service on you of this Summons (exclusive of the day of service), or if you fail to do so, judgment by default will be taken against you, according to the prayer of said complaint.

The said action is brought to recover judgment against you, the said defendant, for the absolute dissolution of the bonds of matrimony now existing between you and said plaintiff on the grounds that you have willfully abandoned and deserted the said plaintiff, and answer the complaint therein, and have neglected and refused to furnish her with the common necessities of life for more than a year last past, and that such neglect was not on account of poverty which could not be avoided by ordinary industry. All of which more fully appears from the complaint on file in the office of the Clerk of said Court.

And you are hereby notified that if you fail to appear and answer the said complaint as above required, the said plaintiff will apply to said Court for the relief demanded in said complaint. In testimony whereof, I, Geo. S. Sawyer have hereunto set my hand this 1st day of April, A. D. 1895.

Geo. S. SAWYER, Attorney for Plaintiff.

Notice of Forfeiture.

To E. O. Western, his grantees, assigns, heirs, executors, or administrators and all parties claiming under, from, by or through him:

You are hereby notified that the undersigned co-owner with you in the mining claim known as the "West End" situated in Elko Mining District, Lincoln County, State of Nevada, has performed the work and made the expenditures on the said mining claim, required by section 2324 of the Revised Statutes of the United States to hold the same for the years 1890, 1891, '92, '93, and '94 and the amount due from you, your grantees, assigns, or administrators, etc., on account of such expenditures on said mining claim is the sum of one hundred and seventy-five dollars ($175.)

And if within ninety days after the publication of this notice you fail or refuse to contribute your said proportion of such expenditure as co-owner, your interest in said claim will become the property of the subscriber under said section 2324.

IT'S INJURIOUS TO STOP! SUDDENLY

and don't be imposed upon by buying a remedy that requires you to do so, as it is nothing more than a substitute. In the sudden stoppage of tobacco you must have some stimulant, and in most cases, the effect of the stimulant, be it opium, morphine, or other opiates, leaves a far worse habit contracted.

Ask your druggist about "BACO-CURO." It is purely vegetable. You do not have to stop using tobacco with BACO-CURO. It will notify you when to stop, and your desire for tobacco will cease. Your system will be as free from nicotine as the day before you took your first

Dear Sirs—I have been a tobacco fiend for many years and during the past two years have smoked fifteen to twenty cigars regularly every day. My whole nervous system became affected, until my physician told me I must give up the use of tobacco for the time being, at least. I tried the so-called "Keeley Cure," "No-To-Bac," and various other remedies, but without success, until I accidentally learned of your "BACO-CURO." Three weeks ago to-day I commenced using your preparation, and to-day I considered myself completely cured; I am in perfect health, and the horrible craving for tobacco, which every inveterate smoker fully appreciates, has completely left me. I consider your "BACO-CURO" simply wonderful, and can fully recommend it.

Yours very truly, C. W. HORNICK.
